

CE OPPORTUNITY

Images courtesy of Google images

Introduction to CSAC Ethics.

What's in it for you?

- Learn /review a key aspect of our profession.
- Elevate professional knowledge and service quality within your agency and the field.
- Get ADAD-approved CE hours.

CE hours 6 CE hours applicable to CSAC education hours (Hawaii)

Presenter: David Sprouse, LMHC, NCC, CSAC

Bio:

Dave is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor in Hawaii with certification in substance abuse, clinical supervision and career counseling. Dave is a prior Clinical Director of a Medication Assisted Treatment Outpatient facility with 3 locations. Dave currently is exclusive to private practice by way of contracts with Xplor Counseling, local EAP's and others.

Audience: Those working in addiction counseling or related fields who wish to learn or review ethical principles applicable to substance abuse counseling.

Key Points / Objectives / Agenda: Participants will become familiar with:

- Introductions and networking
- Discussion of "need of know" and relevance to field work
- 12 Ethical Principles of CSAC Code of Ethics
- Email your intent to sign up with subject line "Lab/UDS CE"

- Send email to TwentyFourToLife@outlook.com
- Include your first and last name (email address if wishing to use a different one that you write from).
- The cost for training is $20 for each attendee (minimum of 20 paid attendees desired to hold the course).
  - Preferred payment ($20) method is PayPal and the email I used for that account is TwentyFourToLife@outlook.com
  - Venmo is also an option and my Venmo ID is @David-Sprouse-3
    - Should the course get cancelled by the presenter, fees will be refunded.
- Please use the honor system if more than one attendee is at your location
  - If signing up at the same time, multiple attendees from the same location can receive a small discount for signing up 3 or more from the same location (email me first to arrange).
    - Those wishing to mail a check will be given the option, it will need to be received prior to class date though